

Community Supported Agriculture (CSA)

Listing of CSA's serving the LaCrosse Area in 2009 Season

CSA (Community Supported Agriculture) farms provide weekly distributions of sustainably grown produce and much more to households who join for the season. You'll experience a bounty of fresh seasonal vegetables and fruits while directly supporting sustainable agriculture and your local food system. Below is a listing of the CSA's available in the LaCrosse area. Each of these CSA's offers a variety of options in order to accommodate YOU, the consumer, with your (and your family's) specific needs and requirements. Further information on each CSA can be found on their website or call them with any questions. NOTE IN "CO/IR/FS" COLUMN BELOW:

CO=Certified Organic: CSA is certified organic by the USDA

IR=Insurance Rebate: CSA members can receive insurance rebate thru various Wisconsin health plans
